Ok sorry that there hasent been a site update for a little while, ryuujin was supposed to do last weeks but i guess i forgot to set permissons for him to post so i guess its my fault that there was not. Well there wasent really any changes or additions for the past 2 weeks as i decided to take a little break from working on the site, well im back and this week i am hopeing to add at least 5 more anime, and manga by the end of this week so keep a eye out because there will be new stuff and i hope you all will enjoy it. Thats all for this weeks update, not much but next week there shall be more.
